

Camac Valley Caravan & Camping Park. If you want to visit Leinster, County Dublin or simply the beautiful capital, this camp can be your ideal base. Located near the small village of Clondalkin, it offers the possibility of long walks, given the presence of Corkagh Park, a natural park full of wildlife, lakes and herds of animals.

<http://www.camacvalley.com>

Nore Valley Park. Located a few kilometers from the beautiful town of Kilkenny, the Nore Valley operates both as an outdoor farm and as a campsite. Perfect for families (awarded the Best Family Friendly Site in 2008) and for children who love to play with the animals, it also offers the possibility of scenic walks along the river, horseback riding and canoeing and orienteering.

<http://www.norevalleypark.com>

Wave Crest Caravan & Camping Park. Overlooking Kenmare Bay, this camp has received the 2009 award for best coastal site. It enjoys a spectacular view of beaches, bays and mountains, is ideal for those who love water sports like diving and surfing, or for those who enjoy boat trips, accompanied by dolphins and basking sharks (harmless to humans) .

<http://www.wavecrestcamping.com>

Curragh Chase Forest Park. Located about 20 miles from Limerick, this is the perfect camp for those who want to go hiking or cycling with its marked trails that range from easier for families to the more difficult fit for the true lovers of trekking. With its 313 acres of woodlands, parks and lakes, this area represents an ideal habitat for a wide range of animals and plants.

http://www.coillteoutdoors.ie/?id=53&rec_site=109